

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

One of our most recent novelties is Caw's "Dashaway" Fountain Pen. It is the results of experiments extending over $\frac{1}{4}$ of a century. The press and the people endorse it. It combines simplicity and absolute certainty of action. No one was ever known to go back to the old style, who had used a Dashaway sufficiently long to appreciate it.

We haven't room or time for half we'd like to tell you about. You must come and see them, and select for yourselves.

SUPPLEMENT.

April 23.

PROSPECTUS OF ELECTIVE COURSES

OFFERED TO THE

Yale College, 1890-91.

Juniors select nine hours per week, and Seniors fifteen hours per week, from the following list. All the courses are open to members of either class, unless some limitation is specified. The number of hours specified means, in every case, hours per week. When a course is stated as occupying "both terms," it cannot, if chosen, be abandoned during the year.

☞ Two returns are called for. The first will be a preliminary selection and must be reported at 118 North College ON OR BEFORE MAY 3. A time-table will then be prepared and published, and the final selection, subject to the conditions of the time-table, must be reported at the same place ON OR BEFORE MAY 24.

Committee : PROFS. SUMNER, PECK, E. S. DANA and PHILLIPS.

I. PSYCHOLOGY, ETHICS, AND PHILOSOPHY.

[Every Senior is required to take one course in this department. He must choose, for this purpose, from courses 1, 2, 3 and 4. He may elect, in addition, any other of these four. It is requested that any one who does so will indicate on his ticket which one is taken as "required." The courses from 5 on are additional electives. ~~At~~ One of the first four must be taken. Any of the first nine may be taken in addition.]

Ex-President PORTER :—

1 Advanced Ethics. [Seniors] 2 hrs. both terms.

This course will have special reference to social and theological questions. The exercises will involve the critical history and analysis of the systems of the most important ethical writers. The works used principally as text-books will be the following : Wilson and Fowler, Moral Philosophy ; Alexander on Moral Order and Progress ; and Abbot's Kantian Ethics. Reference will also be made to Sidgwick, History of Ethical Theories and Methods of Ethics ; Martineau, Types of Ethical Theory ; Porter, Kantian Ethics ; Spencer, Data of Ethics ; Leslie Stephen, System of Ethics ; J. S. Mill, Utilitarianism.

Professor LADD :—

2 Introduction to Philosophy. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.

The design of this course is to present, in an elementary and summary way, the principal philosophical problems. To this end, some brief work on psychology will be read,—to be followed by the reading of a book on the Introduction to Philosophical Study. Lectures and discussions will continue through the year. Toward the close of the course special emphasis will be laid on Ethics, Aesthetics, and the Philosophy of Religion.

3 Physiological Psychology. 2 hrs. both terms.

A study (illustrated by charts, models, and histological preparations) of the human nervous mechanism, of the principal relations which exist between changes in this mechanism and the activities of the mind, and a discussion of the conclusions which may be drawn from these relations respecting the nature and laws of the mind. Ladd's Elements of Physiological Psychology.

Mr. DUNCAN :—

- 4 History of Philosophy. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.
An elementary study of the development of speculative thought from Descartes to the present time, with cursory reading of philosophical masterpieces from Descartes to Kant. Descartes' Method and Principles of Philosophy, pt. i; Bacon's Novum Organum; Spinoza's Ethics—selections; Locke's Essay on Human Understanding—selections; Leibnitz's Monadology and Philosophical Opuscles; Berkeley's Principles of Human Knowledge; Hume's Inquiry concerning Human Knowledge; Kant's Prolegomena.

Ex-President PORTER :—

- 5 Psychology and Philosophy. [Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.
This course is designed to afford the student opportunity to re-examine some of the questions which have been raised by the earlier study of psychology. Porter's Human Intellect will be read, with special reference to the portions printed in the smaller type.

Professor LADD :—

- 6 Pedagogics. 1 hr. both terms.
The theory and practice of teaching will be discussed, with recitations and lectures based upon Rosenkranz, Philosophy of Education, and Froebel, Education of Man.
- 7 Philosophy. [Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.
This course will consist of expository and critical lectures upon Kant's Critique of Pure Reason, with reading and discussion of this masterpiece by the class.
- 8 History of Philosophy. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.
The philosophical development of the seventeenth century on the continent of Europe, as introductory to Kant, will be made the subject of study in this course. Some of the master-pieces of Descartes, Spinoza, and Leibnitz will be read and discussed before the class. The course is designed for those who wish to make a special study—for honors or otherwise—of philosophy.

Mr. DUNCAN:—

9 Advanced Logic, Psychology and Ethics.

[Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.

A study, more comprehensive, of the principal questions in these subjects raised by the required course of Junior year.

II. POLITICAL SCIENCE AND LAW

Professor SUMNER :—

[Prof. Sumner may be seen at E, 2, Osborn, on Mondays and Thursdays at 12 M., or at A, 1, Osborn, on Tuesdays, between 11 and 12 A. M., by any who desire information or advice about his courses.]

10 Political Economy. 2 hrs. both terms.

The elements of Political Economy, and the recent financial history of the United States, with lectures on the elementary principles. This course should be taken by Juniors who intend to give especial attention to this subject, as it is introductory to all the Senior courses in this department.

11 Political Economy. [Seniors.] 3 hrs. both terms.

A one year course planned to give a substantial and comprehensive knowledge of the essentials of Political Economy to those whose chief interest lies in other departments of study.

(Courses 12 to 15 are open only to those who have taken course 10 in Political Economy.)

12 Political Economy. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.

Advanced Political Economy, consecutive with course 10. There will be lessons in selected passages from the leading text-books, and in economic history; also study of problems, examination of cases, and theses on leading topics of doctrine and history.

13 Finance. [Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.

A second-year course in money, banking, taxation, and public debts. The exercises consist of text-book lessons and papers on assigned topics. Those who can read French with sufficient facility, may read Leroy-Beaulieu's Science des Finances. Courses 12 and 13 are the continuation into Senior year of course 10; the time and topics being divided for convenience of choice.

14 School of Political Economy. [Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.

A school of Political Economy will be formed for those who desire to make this subject their chief study during the year. The financial history of the United States since 1860 will be the field of study. Each student will be expected to investigate an assigned topic thoroughly, and to prepare a series of papers upon it. No one will be admitted who does not take courses 12 and 13, and each one who desires to join must obtain the consent of the instructor, which will be given to those whose previous work in the department shows that they are most competent for this kind of work.

15 Social Science. [Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.

A very elementary course in the structure of society, and the origin and laws of development of civilization, on the basis of Prehistoric Science, Ethnology, and Archæology. The topics will be illustrated by plates from the whole literature of Anthropology, and by visits to the museum. The course will be occupied entirely with positive information and scientific method, and will not take up any of the subjects of criticism and speculation popularly connected with "social science." The class will consist of three sections. The English section will read Tylor's Anthropology and Joly's Man Before Metals. The French section will read Quatrefages' Histoire Générale des Races Humaines. The German section will read Lippert's Kulturgeschichte. The exercises, for the French and German sections, will be an hour and a quarter each, and will count as two hours. Members of the French or German sections must provide themselves with the text-books here mentioned, by giving orders to the booksellers before vacation.

Professor HADLEY :—

16 Industrial History of the United States since 1850.

[Seniors.] 2 hrs. 1st term.

Open only to those who have already studied Political Economy. Each student will be required to prepare a thesis on some topic connected with United States industrial development. These theses will involve original investigations in history or statistics, and advanced economic reasoning.

17 Modern Economic Theories. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. 2d term.

An account of some of the attacks upon the current doctrines of Political Economy, especially on the part of the socialists. George's Progress and Poverty and Rae's Contemporary Socialism will be read and criticised in detail. The course is open only to those who have already studied Political Economy; but it is not necessary that they should have taken Course 16.

Professor PHELPS :—

18 Law. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. 2d term.

The common law of this country. Constitutional law. International law. The instruction will be by lectures based upon text-books to be read in connection.

Course 18 is only open to those who have taken course 19.

Professor ROBINSON :—

19 Jurisprudence. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. 1st term.

The course will consist of lectures, readings, and examinations on the following subjects: law in its relations to the origin, development and government of political society; origin and development of the customary law; relation of statute law to customary law; formation and development of codes of law; nature and origin of legal rights; principles of the law governing rights in land; principles of the law governing contract rights; the law of remedies for the violation of rights; origin and procedure of courts of law and equity; criminal law. The instruction in this course is designed to present an historical and philosophical view of the law in its great outlines, as common to all nations, and as particularly developed in the Anglo-Saxon race, and thus to serve as an introduction to the courses of Professor Phelps in Municipal, Constitutional and International law.

III. HISTORY

Professor WHEELER :—

20 History of Europe since 1789. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.

Mainly political; introductory to European politics of our day.

- 21 English History. [Seniors.] 3 hrs. both terms.
Political and constitutional. Particular attention is given to the origin and development of the system of self-government. The course is of especial value to those who intend to study law.

- 22 American History. [Juniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.
In the colonial period, the development of self-government, and the formation of the Union. In the later period, the history of political parties will receive especial attention.
- 23 American History. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.
This course is supplementary to course 20 of last year, giving a fuller opportunity for the study of political and constitutional questions, and is open only to those who took that course.

Professor ADAMS :—

- 24 Europe from 1400-1648. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.
The course will take up in detail the political history of the period and also the revival of learning and of art, the beginning of modern scientific work and its development in the XVIIth century, and the Reformation and its results to the close of the religious wars.
- 25 Medieval History. 2 hrs. both terms.
The object of the course will be to furnish an outline of the general history of Europe, and to follow the development of political, intellectual and religious civilization through the period which lies between ancient and modern history.
The text-book to be used will be a translation of Duruy's History of the Middle Ages to be published during the summer.
Those who wish to obtain a knowledge of general history are advised to take this course, and those who intend to give particular attention to history are advised to take it in Junior year.
- 26 The Beginning of the Middle Ages. 1 hr. both terms.
The course will consider the fall of Rome, the establishment of Christianity and of the Roman Church, the German invasions, and the beginning and organization of the new governments. Not open to those taking or to those who have taken course 25.

IV. MODERN LANGUAGES

Professor KNAPP :—

[Courses which do not receive a minimum of 15 men, may not be given. Consultation hours from 10 to 11.30 in D. 202.]

- 27 Old French and Anglo-Norman. 1 hr. both terms.
Readings in Old French and Anglo-Norman literature by the professor, with lectures on Romance Philology. Oral and written examinations following the completion of each subject. Study of the Norman-French element in English.
- 28 French. 2 hrs. both terms.
Critical study of Victor Hugo and Balzac, with lectures and examinations on the same, and on the history of Romanticism in France.
- 29 French (Sophomore). 2 hrs. both terms.
Select readings in Molière, Corneille, and Boileau. Contemporary authors, such as, Pierre Loti, Cherbuliez, and Taine. Conversation.
- 30 French (Freshman). 3 hrs. both terms.
Contes Contemporains, L'Ami Fritz, Le Roi des Montagnes, and extracts from Victor Hugo, Sandeau, Karr, and George Sand. Conversation.
- 31 Spanish. 3 hrs. both terms.
Knapp's Grammar and Modern Readings. Extracts from the Spanish Gil Blas and Don Quijote. Conversation and composition.
- 32 Italian. 3 hrs. both terms.
Grandgent's Grammar, Cuore by De Amicis, Checchi's Italia dal 1815 ad oggi. Extracts from Petrarch, Ariosto and Tasso.
- 33 Dante. 1 hr. both terms.
Critical reading of select portions of the Inferno, Purgatorio, and Paradiso.

M. BERGERON :—

- 34 French. 2 hrs. both terms.
Étude analytique des poètes français contemporains. Origines du romantisme. Histoire de la langue française. Recherches philologiques et historiques sur les gallicismes et les proverbes. Ce cours sera fait en français.
- 35 French. 2 hrs. both terms.
Composition from books of travel, etc., with special reference to Syntax. Phonetics. Oral exercises. Study of synonymes, antonymes and comparative idioms.
- 36 French. 2 hrs. both terms.
Rapid reading in contemporary authors, such as, Erckmann-Chatrian, Halévy, Mérimée, About. French conversation to acquire a correct pronunciation, current vocabulary, and to fix grammatical forms, syntax, and idioms. Designed only for Juniors and Seniors who pursued German the first two years.
- 37 French (Sophomore). 2 hrs. both terms.
The same as course No. 29.
- 38 French (Freshman). 3 hrs. both terms.
The same as course No. 30.

Mr. GOODRICH :—

[Information as to his courses may be obtained from Mr. Goodrich at 195 O. C. Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from 9.30 to 10 A. M.]

- 39 German Drama. 3 hrs. both terms.
Critical study of selected plays from Lessing, Goethe, and Schiller.
- 40 Goethe. 2 hrs. both terms.
During the first term selections from Goethe's shorter poems will be read. The poet's life down to the death of Schiller, in 1805, will be studied, with the aid of selected readings, papers, and lectures. During the second term, Faust, Part I.
- 41 Elementary German (Freshman). 3 hrs. both terms.
- 42 Second Year German (Sophomore). 2 hrs. both terms.

Mr. GRUENER :—

[Courses 44 and 45 are not to be chosen without previous consultation with the instructor, who will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to his courses at No. 5 South College, every day except Saturday, at 9.30 A. M.]

- 43 German Prose. 3 hrs. both terms.
For rapid reading. Modern fiction. Selections from biography history, and critical essays.
- 44 German Composition. 2 hrs. both terms.
Devoted to practice in writing and speaking. Translations into German of narrative prose ; selections from history and literature. This course is to be conducted in German.
- 45 Middle High German. 2 hrs. both terms.
Hartmann. Nibelungenlied. Selected poems of Walther von der Vogelweide. Lectures and papers.

Professor BEERS :—

- 46 18th Century Literature 2 hrs. both terms.
The course will embrace selections from the following authors : Swift, Addison, Prior, Gay, Pope, Johnson, Burke, Goldsmith, Sheridan, Fielding, Sterne, Collins, Gray, Cowper and Burns. Thackeray's "English Humorists," Leslie Stephen's "History of English Thought," and the histories of 18th century literature by T. S. Perry and Edmund Gosse will be used as reference books.
- 47 19th Century Literature. 2 hrs. both terms.
The principal English authors from Wordsworth to Swinburne (except Tennyson and Browning) will be studied, partly by critical readings in the class room, partly by outside assigned reading in connection with the English loan library, and partly through lectures and reference books.
- 48 Milton and His Contemporaries. 1 hr. both terms.
The course will include all Milton's English poems, the Epitaphium Damonis, portions of the Elegiarum Liber, and the selections from the prose tracts included in the "Parchment" edition ; together with passages from the lyrical poets of Milton's time, and from the works of Clarendon, Browne, Taylor, Fuller and Isaak Walton.

Professor Cook :—

- 49 History of English Literature. 2 hrs. 1st term.
An outline of the subject, on the basis of Brooke's Primer, Taine, Morley's First Sketch, and Ten Brink's Early English Literature, supplemented by outside reading. Frequent preparation of brief papers on assigned topics.
- 50 Advanced Old and Middle English. [Sen.] 1 hr. both terms.
Grammatical and exegetical study of selected Old and Middle English texts. Open to students who have a good reading knowledge of German and an elementary acquaintance with Old English, and who wish to make a closer study of the language in its earlier stages.
- 51 Old and Middle English. 2 hrs. both terms.
An elementary course in the beginnings and earlier development of the English language and literature. Examination of the various elements of the modern English vocabulary, and especially of the Saxon or Germanic element. Translation of Old English prose. Philological interpretation of selected passages by the instructor. Sweet's Anglo-Saxon Reader; Ten Brink's Early English Literature; Cook's Sievers' Old English Grammar; Bede's History; Pauli's Life of King Alfred. Reading of selections from Chaucer and other Middle English writers for linguistic purposes.
- 52 English Essayists. 2 hrs. 2d term.
Study of the opinions and style of selected prose authors, ranging from the Elizabethan era to the present. Frequent preparation of brief papers on assigned topics.
- 53 Shakespeare. 2 hrs. 2d term.
Critical study of a few selected plays. The Leopold edition of Shakespeare; Moulton's Shakespeare as a Dramatic Artist; Schmidt's Shakespeare Lexicon; annotated editions of single plays, etc. Frequent preparation of brief papers on assigned topics.
- 54 Bacon. 2 hrs. 1st term.
Bacon's Essays and Advancement of Learning. Study through paraphrase and amplification. Bacon's character, opinions, and style. His place in Elizabethan literature. Frequent preparation of brief papers on assigned topics.

- 55 Tennyson. 2 hrs. 1st term.
Critical study of selected poems. Tennyson's theory of life, literary art, and place among the poets of this century. Comparative readings in other authors, and frequent preparation of brief papers on assigned topics.
- 56 Browning. 2 hrs. 2d term.
Critical study of selected poems. Browning's theory of life, literary art, and place among the poets of this century. Comparative readings in other authors, and frequent preparation of brief papers on assigned topics.

Mr. McLAUGHLIN :—

- 57 English Dramatists. 2 hrs. both terms.
Rapid reading, with general literary exegesis, of plays of Marlowe, Jonson, Beaumont and Fletcher, Webster, Ford, Dryden, Congreve, Goldsmith, Sheridan, Shelley, Byron, Robert Browning.
- 58 Medieval Literature. 1 hr. both terms.
Lectures on the general characteristics of later medieval literature, especially in the romances, with particular reference to its relation to English literature. Discussions of English authors who have treated medieval subjects, particularly Chaucer, Matthew Arnold, Swinburne, William Morris and Tennyson. The reading by the class will consist of selections from these and other poets, Malory's Morte d'Arthur and possibly other translations, and a certain amount of outside work in available originals, either old English, medieval Latin, old French or middle-high German, at individual option.

V. ANCIENT LANGUAGES AND LINGUISTICS.

Professor WM. R. HARPER and Mr. ROBERT F. HARPER :—

- 59 Hebrew (first course). 4 hrs. 1st term.
Genesis i-viii, and with these chapters (a) the grammatical principles of the language; (b) acquisition of a vocabulary; (c) translation of English into Hebrew.
In beginning a language like Hebrew, a two-hour course is unsatisfactory. Much more can be accomplished in a four-hour course during the shorter term, than in a two-hour course continued throughout the year. Those who take course 59 the first term, may take the second term, courses 60 and 61 or courses 60 and 64 (Old Testament Literature), or course 60 with any other two-hour course which begins the second term.

- 60 Hebrew (second course). 2 hrs. 2d term.
Deuteronomy, critical translation, with (a) review of grammar; (b) study of accents; (c) special exercises in Hebrew prose composition; (d) principles of Hebrew poetry.

- 61 Hebrew (third course). 2 hrs. 2d term.
Hexateuchal analysis, including (a) translation and comparison of the several documents of which the Hexateuch is composed; (b) examination of the grounds on which the analysis rests; together with (c) special study of the principal points of syntax.

- 62 Arabic. 2 hrs. both terms.
Arabic version of Genesis, chapters i-iii, and with these chapters the principles of the language (Lansing's Arabic Manual); selected portions of the Kuran; lectures on contents and arrangement of the Kuran.

- 63 Assyrian. 2 hrs. both terms.
Principles of the language; selections in cuneiform text, Lyon's Assyrian Manual, Delitzsch's Lesestücke and Assyrische Grammatik; lectures on Assyrian History and Literature.

- 64 Old Testament Legal Literature. 2 hrs. both terms.
This course is one of the three covering in a general way the entire history and literature of the Old Testament. The other courses take up the "prophetical" literature and the "wisdom" literature. The work may be classified under the following divisions:

1. General Semitic History and Literature, including (1) the general study of the history and literature of the Semitic nations; (2) Semitic civilization, its characteristics and its relation to other civilizations; (3) in particular, the origin of the Hebrew nation,—its relation to other Semitic nations.

2. Early Hebrew Traditions and Institutions, including (1) an examination of the traditions found in the earlier Hebrew literature: the account of the creation, the garden of Eden, the story of the fall, the beginnings of civilization, the deluge account, the longevity of the patriarchs, the confusion of tongues, the earlier patriarchal stories, the residence of Israel in Egypt, the Egyptian plagues, the exodus, the wandering in the wilderness, the conquest of Canaan ; (2) an examination of the more important institutions found among the Hebrews : the Sabbath, marriage, sacrifice, circumcision, clean and unclean, feasts, etc.

3. Hebrew Legislation, including a study of (1) the present form of this legislation, whether it is preserved in one code or three ; (2) the contents as classified according to the prevailing element in each case, whether the hygienic, the social, the civil or the religious ; (3) the relation of this literature to other divisions of Hebrew literature ; (4) the connection of this legislation with Israelitish history in its different periods ; (5) a comparison of the principles underlying this system with those of other ancient legal systems.

4. The Hebrew State, including the study of (1) the various outward forms of government under which Israel lived ; (2) the relation of the Israelitish theocracy to the government of other ancient nations ; (3) the influence of the principles underlying the Israelitish theocracy upon the origin and early history of the government of the United States.

Professor W. D. WHITNEY :—

65 Sanskrit. 4 hrs. both terms.

A first-year's instruction in Sanskrit, beginning with the instructor's Sanskrit Grammar, and passing on to Lanman's Reader. A sketch of Sanskrit literature is given in connection with the exercises during the latter part of the year.

66 Linguistics. 1 hr. 2d term.

A series of exercises—mingled lecture, recitation, and discussion—on the leading topics of the general study of language, following and using as text-book the instructor's Life and Growth of Language, is given if a class of six or more is formed.

Professor PECK :—

[Professor Peck will be at K Osborn, Mondays and Fridays from 9:30 to 10:00 A. M., for consultation in regard to his courses.]

67 Early Latin. 1 hr. both terms.

Study of inscriptions and of the ante-classical literature, based on Allen's Remnants of early Latin and Smith's Latin Selections.

This course will be largely philological and critical, and open only to those who have done superior work in Latin.

- 68 Latin Poetry. 2 hrs. both terms.
Development of poetic forms and styles in Latin, with studies in Lucretius, Horace (Epistles), Tibullus, and Persius.
- 69 Latin Prose. 2 hrs. both terms.
History of prose composition among the Romans, with illustrative readings from Cicero, Livy, Quintilian (Book X.), and Tacitus (Annals).

Professor H. P. WRIGHT :—

- 70 Juvenal and Martial. 2 hrs. 1st term
Satires I, III, IV, V, VII, VIII, with selections from Martial with special reference to a study of the private life of the Romans.

Mr. ABBOTT :—

- 71 Plautus. 2 hrs. 1st term.
The Aulularia and the Pseudolus.
- 72 Cicero's Letters. 2 hrs. 2d term.
Chiefly non-political letters to members of Cicero's family, and to his intimate friends.

Professor SEYMOUR :—

[Professor Seymour will meet students and give fuller information about his courses, at 121 North College, on Wednesdays and Saturdays between ten and twelve o'clock A. M.]

- 73 Homer. 2 hrs. 1st term.
Introduction to the critical study of Homer; interpretation of the first books of the Iliad.
- 74 The Phædo of Plato. 2 hrs. 1st term.
Introduction to the literary and philosophical study of Plato.

- 75 Theocritus. 1 hr. 1st term.
- 76 Homer. 2 hrs. 2d term.
Rapid reading of the principal parts of the Iliad.
- 77 The Nicomachean Ethics of Aristotle. 2 hrs. 2d term.
- 78 Greek Inscriptions. 2 hrs. 2d term.
Exercises in the interpretation of Greek Inscriptions based upon Cauer's Delectus Inscriptionum Græcarum, as an introduction to the historical study of Greek forms.
- 79 The Frogs of Aristophanes. 1 hr. 2d term.

Mr. KITCHEL:—

- 80 Plato. 1 hr. both terms.
The Apology, Crito, and Ion.

Assistant Professor GOODELL:—

[Those who desire to consult Professor Goodell with regard to his courses will find him at 198 O. C., on any day except Wednesday, at 9:30 A. M.]

- 81 Attic Orators. 2 hrs. 1st term.
Selections from the orators before Demosthenes (as much as possible of Jebb's edition) will be read with especial reference to the development of oratory and of Attic prose style.
- 82 Athenian Political and Legal Institutions. 2 hrs. 2d term.
An introduction to the subject. The private orations of Demosthenes will be made the basis of the work; these will be supplemented by lectures and private reading. It is intended that the class shall gain a clear general idea of the Athenian state, with some notion of the Athenian courts and principles of law. A reading knowledge of German will be useful, but is not required.

Assistant Professor REYNOLDS :—

- 83 Euripides. 2 hrs. 1st term.
The Bacchæ and Iphigenia in Aulis. This course will include a systematic study of Euripides as a poet, with lectures on scenic antiquities, metres, and mythology.
- 84 Euripides. 2 hrs. 2d term.
Heracles, Hippolytus, Ion, and Supplices. (See note to the preceding course.)

Mr. HUNT :—

- 85 Introduction to the Study of Classical Archæology. 1 hr. both terms.
Collignon's Manual of Greek Archæology will be taken as the text-book and be made the basis for a more general study of the subject. Students will be referred to works like Baumeister's Denkmäler, Mrs. Mitchell's History of Greek Art, Perrot and Chipiez's History of Ancient Art, and Percy Gardner's Types of Greek Coins. The work of the class will be illustrated further by the plaster casts of the School of Fine Arts and the University's collection of ancient coins, as well as by numerous photographs.

VI. NATURAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCE

Professor J. D. DANA :—

- 86 Geology. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. 1st term.
Geology—physiographic, lithological, and historical. Dana's Manual.
- 87 Geology. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. 2d term.
Remainder of the historical Geology and dynamical Geology.
- 88 Advanced Geology. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.
In connection with the study of the Manual, the reading and discussion of original memoirs and other publications treating of the topics in the course, together with work in the field. Excursions. Open only to those who have taken the first course in Geology, or its equivalent, and have also some knowledge of Chemistry and Mineralogy.

Professor EATON :—

89 Botany. [Juniors.] 2 hrs. 2d term.

An elementary course in the botany of flowering plants. Recitations from Gray's Structural Botany from January till about May 1st, followed by practical work in examining and identifying the ordinary native plants of the vicinity. The class is limited to twenty students.

90 Pteridology and Bryology. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. 1st term.

This course consists of practical work in the preparation and microscopic examination of vegetable tissues, with especial reference to the structure of ferns and mosses. It is limited to six who have taken course 89.

Professor A. W. WRIGHT :—

91 Physics. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. both terms.

Two exercises each week, chiefly practical work in the Sloane Physical Laboratory, with measurements, especially in heat, light, and electricity, each exercise occupying two hours. As introductory to the laboratory practice, the exercises, during a portion of the first term, consist of recitations or discussions upon the theory and methods of physical measurements, the use of instruments, and other special topics. Laboratory facilities are also freely accorded to students of the course at other times than those of the stated exercises. Kohlrausch's Physical Measurements; Glazebrook and Shaw's Practical Physics; Stewart and Gee's Practical Physics; Ayrton's Practical Electricity; Kempe's Handbook of Electrical Testing; Everett's Units and Physical Constants, etc.

The successful prosecution of this course requires proficiency in the Physics and Mathematics of the previous years, the lack of which may be made a reason for exclusion from the course.

Professor E. S. DANA :—

92 Mineralogy and Crystallography. 2 hrs. both terms.

Practical study of mineral species by means of blowpipe analysis and other methods; mathematical study of crystals by the methods of analytical and spherical trigonometry, as also of their optical properties. The time will be divided about equally between the two parts of the subject; the practical exercises may be prolonged to cover two hours when but little outside preparation is called for.

- 93 Descriptive Mineralogy. [Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.
Advanced course in the study of mineral species for those who have already gone through course 92.
- 94 Petrography. [Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.
The study of rocks, chiefly by the microscope, involving also a preliminary study of the form and optical characters of the minerals common in crystallized rocks. The exercise may be extended over two hours. Limited to those who have taken course 92.

Professor GOOCH :—

[Courses 99, 100, 101 with course 95, constitute a connected and continuous line of study in Biology, extending through the Junior and Senior years.]

- 95 Experimental Inorganic Chemistry. 3 hrs. both terms.
Chiefly practical exercises in the laboratory supplemented by recitations and lectures. This course is preliminary to the other courses in Chemistry and to the course in Biology.
- 96 Experimental Organic Chemistry. 2 hrs. both terms.
An introduction to the study of the compounds of carbon. The work is chiefly in the laboratory. Open to those who have previously taken course 95.
- 97 Analytical Chemistry (first course). 3 hrs. both terms.
Laboratory practice in the processes of ordinary qualitative analysis and the principles of quantitative analysis by volumetric methods. Open to those who have taken course 95.
- 98 Analytical Chemistry (second course). 3 hrs. both terms.
Laboratory practice in the methods of gravimetric quantitative analysis. Open to those who take also course 97, or have taken it previously.
In all these courses two hours in the laboratory count as the equivalent of a single recitation hour; and in all a special laboratory fee is charged.

[Professor Gooch will meet at the Kent Laboratory on Tuesdays and Thursdays, between 10.30 and 11.30 o'clock, such students as desire fuller information concerning the work of this department.]

Professor CHITTENDEN :—

[Students desiring further information concerning the courses in Biology may consult Prof. Chittenden or Prof. Smith at the Sheffield Biological Laboratory.]

99 Physiology. [Juniors.] 1 hr. both terms.

Huxley's Lessons in Elementary Physiology, with occasional lectures and illustrative experiments. This course is designed as a preparation for courses 101 and 100 of Senior year, and is open only to those intending to take these courses.

100 Physiological Chemistry. [Seniors.] 4 hrs. 2d term.

Four exercises a week, of a minimum of two hours each, in the laboratory of physiological chemistry. This forms a continuation of course 101 and is open only to those who have taken courses 95 and 99 in Junior year. The time is devoted mainly to a study of the chemistry of the connective, contractile and nerve tissues, of the chemical processes of salivary, gastric and pancreatic digestions, and so far as the time allows, of other subjects connected with the physiology of nutrition and the chemistry of the excretions.

A short course of lectures by Professor S. I. Smith on Embryology, and a somewhat longer one by Professor Chittenden on Experimental Toxicology are also open to students in the above course.

A laboratory fee will be charged for courses 100 and 101. The student in addition must bear the expense of gas, flasks, etc., which should not exceed ten dollars.

Professor S. I. SMITH :—

101 Elementary Anatomy and Histology. [Sen.] 4 hrs. 1st term.

Laboratory work based on Huxley and Martin's Practical Biology. Four exercises, of a minimum of two hours each. The time is devoted principally to dissections of the frog and work with the microscope on the lower plants and animals, and in vertebrate histology, with special reference to the rudiments of biology and the elements of the morphology of animal tissues. The student is required to make microscopical preparations, keep careful records of his work, and pass frequent examinations. Open only to those who have taken courses 95 and 99 in Junior year and to be followed by course 100, 2d term.

VII. MATHEMATICS

[It is strongly recommended by all the instructors in the mathematical department that those who intend to study advanced mathematics or the natural and physical sciences, or who expect to become engineers, should take course 102 in the Calculus in Junior year. For consultation respecting the courses in mathematics, the following hours have been named :—Prof. Newton, 2 P. M. at 135 Elm st.; Prof. Gibbs 9:30 A. M. at Sloane Laboratory, on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays; Prof. Richards, 10–11 A. M. Tuesdays and Thursdays at 86 N. M.; Prof. Phillips, 9:30 A. M. at B2 Osborn Hall; Prof. Beebe, 9:30 A. M. at C. Cabinet; Mr. Dutcher, 2 P. M. at 21 South College.]

Professor NEWTON :—

102 Calculus. 3 hrs. both terms.

103 Integral Calculus and Mechanics. [Sen.] 3 hrs. both terms.

Mean values and probability; differential equations; analytical statics and dynamics.

Open only to those who have taken course 102.

104 Shooting Stars and Meteors. [Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.

The mathematical theories of these bodies, and the treatment of the observations of them.

Professor GIBBS :—

105 Vector Analysis. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. 1st term.

Elementary course, in which the simpler problems of geometry, kinematics, and mechanics are treated by vector methods. The matter taught is not entirely unlike that usually given in courses in Quaternions, but the method followed is in some respects nearer to Grassmann's than to Hamilton's.

106 Vector Analysis. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. 2d term.

Advanced course, including differentiation with respect to position in space, the theory of the potential and allied functions, and that of linear vector functions. This course is especially designed for an introduction to the study of mathematical physics, and is open only to those who have taken the preceding.

- 107 Computation of Orbits. [Seniors.] 2 hrs. 2d term.
Vector methods will be used, and the course is open only to those who take course 105.

Professor E. L. RICHARDS :—

- 108 Higher Trigonometry. 2 hrs. 1st term.
Exponential and logarithmic series; DeMoivre's theorem; theory of proportional parts; applications. Calculus desirable but not required.

Professor PHILLIPS :—

- 109 Plane Analytical Geometry. 2 hrs. both terms.
Continuation of Graphic Algebra and the Analytical Geometry of Sophomore year with special reference to facility in plotting equations. Selected chapters in Casey's Conic Sections and Frost's Curve Tracing will form the basis of instruction.
- 110 Solid Analytical Geometry. [Seniors.] 1 hr. both terms.
Open only to those who have completed course 109.
- 111 Descriptive Geometry. 1 hr. both terms.
The principles of orthographic projection, shades and shadows, and linear perspective. Attention is given both to the mathematical treatment and to the mechanical drawing. The course is intended specially for those who expect to study engineering or architecture.

Assistant Professor BEEBE :—

- 112 Geodesy. 2 hrs. 1st term.
Field work with the surveyor's transit; measurements and computations for a secondary triangulation from a base line of the U. S. Coast Survey; reductions to center; distribution of errors; measurement of a base of verification. Recitations from Gillespie's Surveying.
- 113 Practical Astronomy. 2 hrs. 2d term.
Development of formulæ relating to azimuth, latitude and time; observations with the theodolite, transit instrument and sidereal clock ; numerical computations for the reduction of the observations. Recitations from Loomis' Practical Astronomy. Open only to those who have taken course 112.

- 114 Elements of Astronomy. [Juniors.] 1 hr. both terms.
The course pursued will be essentially that presented in the abridged edition of Young's Astronomy. Facilities will be given for the study of the constellations and the use of the telescope.
- 115 Descriptive Astronomy (Advanced.) 1 hr. both terms.
Consecutive with course 114. To be given the following year.

Mr. DUTCHER :—

- 116 Modern Geometry. 2 hrs. 2d term.
Casey's Sequel to Euclid will furnish the basis of instruction in the earlier part of the course, and in the latter part, the chapters on trilinear coördinates in Casey's Analytic Geometry.

VIII. MUSIC.

Professor STÖCKEL :—

- 117 Harmony. 2 hrs. both terms.
Acoustics. Intervals. Chords with inversions and combinations. Modulation. Non-harmonic notes. Suspension. Accompaniment of a melody.
- 118 Counterpoint, Canon, Fugue. 2 hrs. both terms.
Counterpoint of the I, II, III and IV orders. Counterpoint: single, double, triple, quadruple. Imitation, Canon, Fugue.
- 119 Forms. 1 hr. both terms.
Motive, Phrase, Period, Part, Song. Rondo. Sonata. Orchestral Forms.
Lectures will be given on the History of Music, sacred and secular. Aesthetics. Analysis: Oratorio, Opera, Chamber-music, Symphony. Biography: Palestrina, Bach, Handel, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Wagner.
Members of any department in the University may be admitted to courses 117, 118, 119. The lectures are open also to friends and scholars of music, who may not be matriculated. Admittance to course 117 is without examination. Admittance to course 118, after passing a satisfactory examination in the work of course 117. Admittance to course 119, after passing a satisfactory examination in the work of course 118.

For further information apply at No. 3 Treasury Building.

[A Board of Examiners, composed of the professor of music and two selected musicians, will examine candidates for certificates in organ-playing and the conduct of the musical part of the church service.]

Richmond Straight Cut No. 1 Cigarettes.

Cigarette Smokers

Who are willing to pay a little more than the price charged for the ordinary trade Cigarettes, will find THIS BRAND superior to all others.

RICHMOND STRAIGHT CUT No. 1 CIGARETTES

are made from the brightest, most delicately flavored and highest cost GOLD LEAF grown in Virginia. This is the OLD AND ORIGINAL BRAND OF STRAIGHT CUT CIGARETTES, and was brought out by us in the year 1875.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS, and observe that the firm name as below is on every package.

ALLEN & GINTER, Manufacturers, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

POND'S EXTRACT

Is as indispensable to the TOILET TABLE of every gentleman as it is in the Gymnasium. Every little ROUGHNESS, REDNESS, INFLAMMATION or ABRASION of the SKIN is CURED by POND'S EXTRACT. For HEADACHE, SORENESS, or LAMENESS, for SORE THROAT or HOARSENESS, it is unequalled. Diluted with water it is delightfully COOLING, REFRESHING and BENEFICIAL to the SKIN.

The LEADING ATHLETES say that all SORENESS, STIFFNESS or SWELLING is prevented or almost instantaneously removed, if AFTER EXERCISING, the muscles are thoroughly rubbed with POND'S EXTRACT.

"Almost all the Athletes of the Ninth Regiment have for some time been using your POND'S EXTRACT, and find it to be of great benefit in relieving Sprains, Bruises and Strains, as well as for easing the muscles before and after competing in any event."

Richmond Straight Cut No. 1 Cigarettes.

Cigarette Smokers

Who are willing to pay a little more than the price charged for the ordinary trade Cigarettes, will find THIS BRAND superior to all others.

RICHMOND STRAIGHT CUT No. 1 CIGARETTES

are made from the brightest, most delicately flavored and highest cost GOLD LEAF grown in Virginia. This is the OLD AND ORIGINAL BRAND OF STRAIGHT CUT CIGARETTES, and was brought out by us in the year 1875.

POND'S EXTRACT

Is as indispensable to the TOILET TABLE of every gentleman as it is in the Gymnasium. Every little ROUGHNESS, REDNESS, INFLAMMATION or ABRASION of the SKIN is CURED by POND'S EXTRACT. For HEADACHE, SORENESS, or LAMENESS, for SORE THROAT or HOARSENESS, it is unequalled. Diluted with water it is delightfully COOLING, REFRESHING and BENEFICIAL to the SKIN.

The LEADING ATHLETES say that all SORENESS, STIFFNESS or SWELLING is prevented or almost instantaneously removed, if AFTER EXERCISING, the muscles are thoroughly rubbed with POND'S EXTRACT.

"Almost all the Athletes of the Ninth Regiment have for some time been using your POND'S EXTRACT, and find it to be of great benefit in relieving Sprains, Bruises and Strains, as well as for easing the muscles before and after competing in any event."

THE YALE CAMPUS.

AN ORIGINAL ETCHING BY ROBERT R. WISEMAN.

THIS remarkably well executed plate shows the entire "old brick row" extending from Chapel Street to Durfee. It includes the fence and the old elms, as they appeared before the New Recitation Building caused their destruction.

It includes, also, a representation of a group of undergraduates gathered at the fence, and it is true to the life of Yale, as it was before the erection of the new building.

No plain prints of the etching are to be had, for the present, at any rate;—possibly not at all.

Each remarque artist-proof is printed on Imperial Japan paper; and bears remarque of ivy leaves in brown and the signature of the artist.

Price, each, matted, $12.00.

A limited number of copies will be framed in the elm-wood taken from one of the trees which formerly stood near the corner of the fence, and the genuineness of this is guaranteed by the publishers of the etching.

Price, each, framed in this elm-wood, $25.00.

This etching far surpasses any of the same subject which has previously been offered, both in artistic excellence as an etching, and in merit as a characteristic representation of the place and scene portrayed.

It is in large size, much larger than that of any previous etching of the Campus; and makes a most attractive picture.

Copies can be had of New Haven dealers or by addressing the publishers, FREDERICK A. STOKES & BROTHER, 182 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

A Tonic

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE

Prepared under the direction of Prof. E. N. Horsford.

This preparation is recommended by Physicians as a most excellent and agreeable Tonic and appetizer. It nourishes and invigorates the tired brain and body, imparts renewed energy and vitality, and enlivens the functions.

Dr. P. W. Thomas, Grand Rapids, Mich., says:

"One of the best of tonics. It gives vigor, strength and quiet sleep."

Dr. H. K. Clarke, Geneva, N. Y., says:

"It has proved of great value for its tonic and revivifying influence."

Dr. R. Williams, LeRoy, N. Y., says:

"A good general tonic, and worthy of trial."

Dr. J. H. Stedman, West Brattleboro, Vt., says:

"Best tonic I ever used."
